Half-board and our restaurants

Our half-board adds culinary excitement to your holidays with a wide range of options:

Le Grand Restaurant: elegant restaurant with a 6-course à la carte menu. Our Maître d'Hôtel will always have a table set aside for you. In the style and tradition of our hotel, our diners in the Grand Restaurant dress smartly: gentlemen in dark suit and tie; ladies in elegant attire.

Salon Vert or Chesa al Parc: for guests with a casual dress code who wish to enjoy our half-board menu in the Salon Vert or a 4-course menu in our rustic Chesa al Parc restaurant (100 yards from the hotel).

If you have booked half-board, the following restaurants on this list will charge à la carte for all orders. A maximum of CHF 45 per adult will be credited to your hotel bill for meals. Beverages will be charged.

Our gourmet restaurant «the K» with 15 GaultMillau points (open mid December):

for an enjoyable evening in a cosy atmosphere, with exquisite and innovative creations from Bernadette Lisibach.

Smart casual attire – no need for a tie.

The Pizzeria: Italian fish and meat specialities. The pizzas from the wood oven and pasta dishes are especially popular. No fixed dress code: any appropriate leisure wear.

Altitude Bar and Lobby: enjoy select drinks in a pleasant atmosphere, entertained by our pianist. Smart attire required from 8 p.m. in the Altitude Bar.

Sunny Bar: for decades the lunchtime venue for the dashing skiers of the Cresta Run, who enjoy a hearty meal here. The Sunny Bar boasts 13 GaultMillau points and offers fine Japanese specialities in the evening.
